MURPHY BUILDING

Cor. Market and Jones Streets.

J. J. O'BRIEN & CO.

PROPRIETORS.

It is pleasant to recall the success which has attended the efforts of J. J. O'Brien as a business man. He opened a small store on Third street, in 1863, when he was 21 years of age and, in a short time his business outgrew the place. Foreseeing the future of Market street, he leased the Arcade building adjoining the Baldwin Hotel, a location then considered out of Town, his growing trade soon assumed such enormous proportions as necessitated his removal to more extensive premises.

THE MURPHY BLOCK.

This monster institution occupies a total area of 24,000 square feet, and is the best lighted, best appointed, and one of the largest Retail Dry Goods Stores in the United States. Noticable among its advantages is its perfect ventilation, a pleasing change from the suffocating atmosphere of Dry Goods Stores generally. Its counters laid in a continuous line would measure over a quarter of a mile in length and are capable of accommodating a patronage of several thousands. A visit to the ladies' reception rooms, impresses one with the preparations made for the comfort of its patrons. The architecture and decorations are of Moorish design and surpass in elegance and Artistic effect, the famous waiting room of the Bon Marché in Paris. Its tables are supplied with Journals, Magazines and Writing materials for the convenience of lady visitors. Adjoining this are the ladies toilet and dressing rooms, in charge of a lady attendant. An idea of the immense volume of business transacted in this model establishment, may be gained by a visit during business hours.

In the several departments can be found the choicest products of the most celebrated European manufacturers as well as the cheapest grades of Domestic goods, it being the business principle of the House to cater to the requirements of all classes. Another feature, is the uniform courtesy and anxiety to please, manifested on all occasions, in exchanging goods or refunding money for purchases made when the goods do not give satisfaction.

In fact, it may be said, that the institution is in every way worthy of San Francisco, and an instance of what enterprise, conducted on true business principles may accomplish.

PALACE HOTEL, SAN FRANCISCO.

A. D. Sharon and G. Schonewald, Lessees.

NEW YORKERS WHO HAVE COME TO STAY.

Permanent Encampment.

One Thousand Strong.

REMINGTON POST, G. A. R.

DEPARTMENT OF CALIFORNIA, GRAND ARMY OF REMINGTONS.

38 California Street, San Francisco, Cal.

G. G. WICKSON, Commander.

THIS ENCAMPMENT has become so strong and its membership is so rapidly increasing that it is now represented in almost every enterprising business firm and legal office in the city, while additional hundreds of its members are doing most valuable service in similar capacity throughout the state.

In fact, so popular has this branch of the service become, that applications for membership are being received faster than it is possible to equip volunteers, and strenuous efforts are being made to still further increase the supply of these most successful arms.

The effectiveness of the field pieces used by this Post, and by them alone, is now greatly increased by the adoption by many of the members, of a most servicable little instrument called the "The Stenograph," and which greatly facilitates feeding the ammunition to the regular transcribing batteries, having also the advantage of feeding it mechanically, and hence more accurately than the old methods of performing the work by hand.

Further and complete information regarding this encampment, as also a practical demonstration of its peculiar advantages will be cheerfully given all who call at the address as given above, or mailed to applicants.

Meetings, all week days excepting Holidays.

We are the acknowledged Headquarters for

LABOR AND TIME SAVING MACHINERY AND DEVICES!

And among others, we represent the popular

Standard of the world. REMINGTON TYPE WRITER! Without a Rival.

 The Stenograph Short-Hand Writing Machine,

SIMPLE, RAPID, ACCURATE. EASY TO LEARN. DELIGHTFUL TO OPERATE.

The Improved Shannon Letter and Document Filing Cabinet.		The Rapid Roller Damp-Leaf Copier. Copies Instantly.		Genuine Type-Writer Supplies in Variety. Paper a Specialty.
